Free Korean Language Courses

Special sessions of Korean language classes are provided for exchange, and graduate students for free of charge. Classes range from seven to ten weeks in length. International students may take the chance to learn basic expressions for daily conversations and broaden their understanding of Korean culture by participating in such classes.

Buddy Program

The CNU buddy program aims to promote academic achievement and adaptation to university life for new incoming overseas students (exchange, undergraduate students only) who can overcome difficulties by being matched with a CNU student partner.

Medical Support

CNU has its own medicare center in student union building and international students may receive general medical treatment there. The medicare center is equipped with a general diagnosis room, oral health room, medicine dispensing room, clinical lab/inspection room, X-ray facilities, a dental unit, and other medical equipment e.g. automatic analysis system; diagnoses available every day from full-time qualified doctors and medical professionals.
